

YEC ACCOMMODATIONS

We recognize the limitations many churches and individuals face when it comes to accommodations for YEC. We are committed to keeping YEC as low-cost to participants as possible. There are a number of hotels in and around the Charleston area. The hotels listed in this document are those with whom we have negotiated some excellent rates for YEC participants. Thanks to the assistance of the Charleston Convention and Visitor's Bureau (CVB), YEC qualifies for the CVB's economic incentive funds if 80% of participants stay in the downtown hotels. That means the City of Charleston will give us approximately $2000 in rental credit. My plan is to apply this money towards the room rates of each group who stays in a downtown hotel, crediting $5 per room. Thus, if your group needs 10 rooms, I will credit you $50 towards hotel accommodations if you stay in a downtown hotel. Note: the credit will not apply to hotels outside of the downtown hotels. The downtown hotels are listed on the front of this document. Other Charleston area hotels are on the back.

All of the hotels listed below have blocks of rooms reserved for YEC for Friday, January 22, 2010. These hotels also include breakfast buffet in the price and free parking (unless otherwise noted). You are responsible for making reservations at the hotel of your choice. Just call the number provided and be sure to mention YEC as the group code. The hotels should waive sales tax under the WVCSB's tax exemption, but you may want to provide a copy of your church's tax exemption as well. Also note that in order to take advantage of the YEC discounted rate, you must make your reservations before each hotel's cut-off date as given below.

At past YECs, some groups made arrangements with local churches to stay overnight. Norm Cannada, of the Pioneer Baptist Association, has offered to serve as a liaison for groups desiring to stay at churches in the Charleston area. You may reach him on his cell phone: 304-989-4529.
